

Engagement

- (a) We agree to supply, and you agree to obtain, the Services upon these Terms and Conditions.
- (b) The "Agreement" consists of these Standard Terms and Conditions and a Statement of Work prepared or accepted by Maffey. If there is any conflict or discrepancy between these Standard Terms and Conditions and the Statement of Work, the contents of the Statement of Work will prevail to the extent required to resolve the conflict or discrepancy.
- (c) The Agreement records the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the matters dealt with in the Agreement and supersedes all previous arrangements, whether written, oral or both, relating to such matters. Any additional, conflicting or inconsistent terms and conditions (whether set forth in a request for proposal, purchase order, or in any other document) are expressly rejected by Maffey and are not part of the Agreement.
- (d) Where these Terms and Conditions form part of a proposal, the proposal will remain open for acceptance for 14 days from the date of submission. Thereafter, acceptance is subject to reconfirmation of the terms of the proposal by us.
- (e) Unless expressly recorded in the Statement of Work, and except as provided in clause , the Agreement does not grant the Client any right to any future versions or upgrades or updates to the Deliverables or other Services, nor any support services. To obtain support and updates (if any) to maintain and enhance the functionality and performance of the Deliverables, the Client must enter into a separate support and maintenance agreement with Maffey.

Services

- (a) The Services are confined to the work specified in the Statement of Work. Alterations to the proposed scope of work due to scope changes or delays beyond Maffey's control may be the subject of an additional fee which either will be agreed or will be charged in accordance with Maffey's then applicable current charge rates. Any such alteration may also impact other aspects of the Services including but not limited to your designated responsibilities and Service delivery schedules.
- (b) Dates in any timetable provided are for planning and estimating purposes only and are not contractually binding. We shall use all reasonable endeavours to meet any times for delivery specified in the Statement of Work (if stated), although delivery usually depends on external factors including availability of Client resources and network access, site access, third party suppliers and other factors beyond our control. Delivery times therefore cannot be guaranteed and shall not be a representation or condition of the Agreement. The Client may delay payment until after the relevant Services are supplied (except where payment is required in advance), but otherwise shall not be relieved of any obligation to accept or pay for the Services by reason of any delay in delivery.
- (c) You acknowledge that we may be required, in the course of providing the Services, to make assessments based on information supplied by you. We will rely on and not verify its accuracy and completeness. You agree that we will not be liable for any loss or damage you or any other person sustains, directly or indirectly, in connection with our reliance on that information.

Intellectual Property

Source code

- (a) In the course of providing any software Deliverables, we may use source code from:
 - (i) our own existing software code, to make development faster, efficient, and more consistent;
 - (ii) software code from open source and public domain libraries; and
 - (iii) newly developed software code specific to the Deliverable.

Ownership

As part of providing the Deliverables, we will usually utilise pre-existing Intellectual Property, including or incorporating (as the case may be) Intellectual Property owned by us or Intellectual Property which we are licenced or otherwise permitted to use. The following Intellectual Property ownership and use rights shall therefore apply unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Parties:

- (a) The Client grants Maffey the right, authority and licence to use the Client Intellectual Property for the sole and exclusive purpose of the Services, on the terms and conditions set out in the Agreement.
- (b) The Client Intellectual Property remains the property of the Client and / or its licensors. This licence does not convey title or grant any rights of ownership in Client Intellectual Property to Maffey.
- (c) Maffey grants the Client the right, authority and licence to use the Maffey Intellectual Property, on a royalty-free basis under the MIT License (see <https://opensource.org/licenses/mit/>) and otherwise on the terms and conditions set out in the Agreement.
- (d) The Maffey Intellectual Property remains the property of Maffey and / or its licensors. This licence does not convey title or grant any rights of ownership in Maffey Intellectual Property to the Client.
- (e) Open source and public domain software code is owned by the respective creators. Although we believe it is being used legitimately and within industry norms and licence permissions, we do not guarantee compliance with all licences. Please see opensource.org/licenses for licence details.
- (f) Maffey may, at its sole discretion, create new or derivative Maffey Intellectual Property, or amend, modify, alter, add to, or remove from, the Maffey Intellectual Property.
- (g) Where Maffey develops and provides a software Deliverable (referred to as a "Project-Specific Deliverable") which is entirely new and contains no pre-existing Maffey Intellectual Property, the Client shall own the Intellectual Property in the Project-Specific Deliverable once payment for that Deliverable is made in full.
- (h) Any Intellectual Property relating to the Services which has been disclosed between the Parties before the commencement of the Agreement shall for all purposes be deemed to have been disclosed under and be subject to all the terms, limitations and conditions of the Agreement.

Charges and Payment

- (a) Subject to any alternative arrangement set out in a Statement of Work, our fees are calculated on the basis of time spent on the Services at our current charge out rates. Fees will be invoiced monthly by the 5th of the month for Services provided in the previous month. Invoices are payable by the 20th of the month after which the services were provided.

- (b) Our Service charges, including hourly rates and hosting rates, may change from time to time. Subject to any rates fixed for a specified term or rates that we have agreed in writing are fixed for a specified term, any variations to our Service charges shall take effect from the date in which we publish or make available those rates and any continuation or request for further Services shall be deemed to be acceptance of the varied rates.
- (c) Any price or estimated fee given by us for Services is an estimate only, unless otherwise specified in writing. We shall not be bound by that estimate and are entitled to charge for the recovery of all costs and labour at our charge-out rates at the time the estimate was given.
- (d) Any monies not paid in full when due may be charged with interest at the current rates charged by ASB Bank Limited for unsecured overdrafts. In addition, you shall be liable to pay all debt collection costs and related legal expenses (on a solicitor-client basis).

 - (i) You shall pay the portion of the amount stated in the invoice that is not in dispute and shall notify us in writing (within 5 Working Days of receipt of the invoice) of the reasons for disputing the remainder of the invoice;
 - (ii) If it is resolved that some or all of the amount in dispute ought properly to have been paid at the time it was first invoiced or if an invoice is unpaid without notice under this clause, then you shall pay the amount together with interest (at the rate specified in (d) above) on that amount.
- If no dispute is notified within 14 days pursuant to (i), you shall be deemed to have accepted the invoice.
- (g) You must pay GST and any other taxes and duties that may be applicable in addition to the fees (except where expressly included in the fees).

No Reliance

The Client acknowledges that it has had the opportunity to take its own specialist advice on this Agreement, the Services (including technical and legal advice) and relies solely on its advisors, save for any documented representations made by Maffey in the Statement of Work. Maffey accepts no liability for any claim relating to or arising from any representations, warranties, conditions or agreements made by any agent or representative of Maffey, which is not expressly confirmed by Maffey in the Agreement.

Severance

If any provision of the Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, such provision will be severed and the remainder of the Agreement will remain in full force and effect.

Force Majeure

Except for an obligation to pay money, neither Party will be liable for any act, omission, or failure to fulfil its obligations under the Agreement to the extent that such act, omission or failure arises from any cause reasonably beyond its control including acts of God, strikes, lockouts, riots, acts of war, terrorist attacks, epidemics, governmental action after the date of the Services Contract, fire, communication line failures, power or hardware failures, earthquakes or other disasters (called "Force Majeure").

The Party unable to fulfil its obligations due to Force Majeure will immediately notify the other in writing of the reasons for its failure to fulfil its obligations and the effect of such failure and use its reasonable endeavours to avoid or remove the cause and perform its obligations.
